The Social Affairs Department acts as coordinator and is the only one of these organizations with a comprehensive knowledge of Communist clandestine activity on Taiwan.

2. The Communists control one army commander on Taiwan. However, since Truman's statement of intention to neutralize Taiwan, many Communist contacts on Taiwan have become discouraged.*

25X1X * [REDACTED] Comment. Although these contacts remain under Communist control, they will not diligently follow Communist instructions when an invasion is launched. For this reason Communist claims of clandestine strength should be somewhat discounted.
